VOL. XXXIII—NO. 299

WEATHER FACTS.

SPRINGFIELD, O.,
December 20, 1887.

FOUR IN HAND.

First—Quality and handiwork guaranteed as represented.
Second—No more than fair value for anything, and in nearly all things less than the general price.
Third—All the time goods returnable and money refunded, if not exactly as represented.
Fourth—A vast stock of all styles of the best makes of hats, clothes and furnishings. As to the second clause, above, our clothes are less than the general price, because we are manufacturers, and sell to you at the same that dealers have to pay, so you save the dealer's profit. As to furnishings, we buy for several stores at once, and so are able to offer you a little better prices. As to hats, the same situation exists, but in addition we are pushing our hat business, so we are taking still less of the profit—giving it to you to induce your trade.
Thus, in all, we save you much money.
No stock presents a greater variety of suitable things for holiday gifts than ours.

Addresses and Discussions on Monday Afternoon and Tuesday Morning.

Mr. Pringle's Address on Patent Laws. Mr. Longacker, of Dayton, Talks about the Fruit Garden. This Morning's Session.

MONDAY AFTERNOON.

The Mission Meeting opened Monday afternoon's session with an appropriate song, capably rendered. The attendance was much larger than in the morning session.

HON. THOMAS J. PRINGLE SPOKE ON THE "PATENT LAWS," IN A PLEASING AND EFFECTIVE MANNER.

The United States leads the world in the invention of labor-saving machinery. The system of patents has resulted in much good. The inventor usually a poor man—needs encouragement and protection. He is entitled to this. The invention comes from his hand and brain.

OUR PRESENT PATENT LAWS, ALTHOUGH FAIRLY GOOD, ARE OPPRESSIVE WHEN THEY REQUIRE PAYMENT FOR A DRIVEN WELL, INVENTED SIMULTANEOUSLY BY A NUMBER OF PERSONS.

The inventor of a patent is oppressed when he buys an implement, without knowledge that it is an infringement and is made to pay for an ignorance that is in no sense his fault.
